Office Note, Office Memoranda of Coram, appearance, Court's Orders or directors and registrar's orders | Court's or Judge's orders

Coram : D.S. Zoting &
A.P.Lavande, JJ.
Dated : January 30, 2006

Heard Shri Jaiswal, the learned counsel for the applicant and Shri Kankale, the learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the respondents.

By this petition, the petitioner is seeking extension of the period of Parole for a period of 60 days on the ground of serious illness of the mother who is suffering from severe diabetis and hypertension problems.

Vide Judgment and Order dated 16th December, 2005 the Parole for a period of two weeks from the date of his release was granted to the petitioner. The period of parole expires on 22nd January, 2006. During the pendency of the application, the report from the Police Officer was obtained and it is reported that the mother of the petitioner was discharged from the hospital on 25th January 2006. It is to be noted that the application for extension of period of Parole was filed before expiry of the period of Parole and the mother of the petitioner was discharged from the hospital after the expiry period of Parole.

Mr. Jaiswal, the learned counsel for the petitioner submits that in view of the information of discharge of the mother of the petitioner from the hospital, he informed the petitioner to surrender before the Jail Authorities on 28th January 2006. He submitted that considering the circumstances, the period of Parole may be extended till 28th January, 2006.

Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, the prayer made by the learned counsel for the petitioner on his behalf appears to be proper and reasonable and, therefore, the parole period is extended with effect from 22nd January 2006 to 28.1.2006.

Application is disposed of.
